Holy Communion Programme 2018/2019

There will be a short meeting after Mass on Sunday 11th November at 12.30 in St Agnes Church for all the Catechists, to discuss the Holy Communion Programme for 2019.

Please try and come as we really do appreciate all your help.
All new Catechists are welcome

St Agnes Little Church

We are looking for new volunteers to be part of our Children's Liturgy Team. This would only mean a commitment of 20 minutes every six weeks, which equates to about 8 times a year. We would really welcome your help. The only criteria is you need to be DBS checked for safeguarding purposes which is obligatory to follow the Liverpool Archdiocese guidelines. Please ring the office for more information.

ALSO, we would love some more people to be part of our 'Welcoming' group to meet and greet as we come into Church.

ST. AIDAN'S GARDENERS WANTED

SILENCE

The Eve of the Incarnation

Silence and Grace

My best writings and teachings have not come from thinking but, as Malcolm Gladwell writes in Blink, much more from not thinking. Only then does an idea clarify and deepen for me. Yes, I need to think and study beforehand, and afterward try to formulate my thoughts. But my best teachings by far have come in and through moments of interior silence—and in the “non-thinking” of actively giving a sermon or presentation or a moment of counsel.

For me, Aldous Huxley described it perfectly in a lecture he gave in 1955 titled “Who Are We?” He said, “I think we have to prepare the mind in one way or another to accept the great uprush or down-rush, whichever you like to call it, of the greater non-self.” That precise language might be off-putting to some, but it is a quite accurate way to describe the very common experience of inspiration and guidance.

All grace comes precisely from nowhere—from silence and emptiness, if you prefer—which is what makes it grace. It is both you and yet so much greater than you at the same time, which is probably why believers chose both up-rushing fountains (John 7:38) and down-rushing doves (Matthew 3:16) as metaphors for this universal and grounding experience of spiritual encounter. Sometimes it is an uprush and sometimes it is a down-rush, but it is always from a silence that is larger than you, surrounds you, and finally names the deeper truth of the full moment that is you. I call such a way of knowing the contemplative way of knowing, as did much of the older tradition. (The word “prayer” has been so consistently trivialized to refer to something you do, instead of something that is done to you, with you, in you, and as you.) Then, like Mary, you are ready to give birth. You are ready for Christmas.

WCMAD UPDATE

Just to let you know that the work we started in Suriname in January 2017 has now been completed. While we were working there we helped dig out the cesspits and now each church now has a toilet. St Martin de Porres church in Apoera was accessed by a grassy path which meant all the mud was being trodden over the tiles. They now have a wooden walkway which stops the mud being trekked into the church. While in Romania we were all very concerned with the lack of toilet facilities for Gina. We can confirm that she now has a toilet. A huge thank you for your continued support which enables us all to make a difference in peoples lives.

SHARe Knowsley News Update

In September we are starting English lessons in Huyton; Tuesdays 11am—1pm Wednesday and Friday 12.30—2.30pm We are looking for volunteers to help in the classes as some people may need a bit more one to one support.

If you are interested in helping in any way at all please get in touch with Margaret Roche either by email: shareknowsley@gmail.com or by phone: 07479 913 914 Successful applicants will be subject to DBS checks.

Thanks again to everyone for your ongoing support

Margaret

Ballroom Dancing at The Old Schoolhouse, St John's Road

Come and join us and learn some ballroom dances with professional teachers. The lessons are on Wednesday at 2-3 pm under instruction and 3-4 pm as extra time to practice what we have been taught. There is a suggested donation of £5.

Car Parking

Please pay attention to parking on the streets during Mass. Often cars are parked which makes it impossible for wheelchair users and prams to pass safely on the pavement

Residents also need to access their driveways with ease.
